As You Sow
by Ms Wendy Louis

This session underpins the schools' efforts to develop students to become men and women for others. It reinforces the whole idea of SERVICE and the call to be a NEIGHBOR to those in need. The topic offers more meaningful insights into the teacher's role in forming 'missionary' students capable of making choices in life.

*Who should attend:
CME / RE Teachers & Coordinators, teachers who attended the Integral Pedagogy workshop, & Teacher / Staff involved in the Character Education Programmes*

Wendy is an educator and a writer. She is currently Executive Director of the Archdiocesan Commission for Catholic Schools (ACCS). She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature & Sociology from the National University of Singapore, a Diploma in Adult Religious Education from Ireland and a Masters degree in Pastoral Ecclesiology from the University of London.

For many years, Wendy works with educators and lay collaborators here and abroad. She also works with the Federation of Asian Bishops' Conferences (FABC), Office of Laity, coordinating the training and resources for Small Christian Communities for dioceses in Asia.
