TALK: CITIZENSHIP IN THE COMMUNITY

BY FR RON BAGLEY, CJM

This talk reinforces the school efforts of developing students who are faithful citizens of the country. It focuses on the value of participation in community and the role of each individual in nation building. It invites teachers to explore the person of the learner as he/she inter-relates within a diverse society and contribute in fulfilling his/her duty towards the country.

*Who should attend:
CME / RE Teachers & Coordinators, teachers who attended the Integral Pedagogy workshop, & Teacher / Staff involved in the Character Education Programmes*

Fr Ron Bagley, CJM, is a priest of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary. He holds a MA in Pastoral Theology and is a Doctor in Ministry (Church and Ministry).

Fr Bagley has some twenty years of experience in pastoral disciplines. He has also been involved in training and consultation in the United States and the Philippines.
